

Chasing the elusive ring

Focus

Citizen photos by DAVE MILNE

Twenty-five ringette teams from across Northern B.C. took part in the Joy Hoffman Memorial Tournament, hosted by Prince George Ringette. The action was fast, furious and fun for the whole weekend. Prince George Novice, left, dressed in the home white jerseys, squared off against the Quesnel Novice squad. The Prince George Tween B goalie, middle left, had to lie on the ice while getting some help with a pad adjustment during a break in the action against the Quesnel Tween B team. Proud father Chris Norman congratulates his daughter Brooklyn for a great effort with an affectionate pat on the head, middle right, after Brooklyn's Prince George Bunny team played the Bunny team from Terrace. The Quesnel Tween B team goalie kept a close eye on the scramble in front of the net, bottom left, during play against the Prince George Tween B team. Kelly Johnson, bottom right, coach of the Prince George Tween B team, gives a pep talk to his players during a break in the action against the Quesnel Tween B team.

