REACH FOR THE RING — Katie Devorkin, goaltender for the Prince George juniors, pulls the ring away from a Terrace skater during Sunday play at the 14th annual Joy Hoffman Memorial ringette tournament. Prince George won this game 7-5 and ended the three-day tournament with a 2-1 record. Prince George lost to Terrace 6-1 on Saturday and downed Quesnel 7-2 on Saturday. One local team that put together a perfect weekend was the Panago Tweens. Panago defeated Houston 8-5 and beat Quesnel by scores of 5-2 and 9-4. Hoffman, who passed away on July 6, 1992, helped grow the game of ringette in Prince George and the rest of the province for 15 years.
