IN BRIEF

Panago tweens still unbeaten

The Panago Predators showed their teeth at the Quesnel Goldpan ringette tournament on the weekend.

The Predators, a local tween B team, ended the event at 2-0-1 to claim top spot in their division. The Predators opened the tournament with a 5-5 tie against Quesnel tween B, beat that same team 5-2 and downed the Quesnel tween C squad 14-1. Ashley Gandy, a former Prince George resident, was the goaltender for Quesnel tween C and kept the score much closer than it otherwise would have been.

So far this season, Panago has not lost a game. Next tournament action for the team is the Kelowna Sweetheart event in February.

Another Prince George team that skated in the Goldpan tournament was the novice White Spruce Diggers. The Diggers, guided by head coach Stephanie Munkley, played to a 1-2 record. First, they edged Terrace 10-8. In their next two outings, the Diggers fell 11-3 to Quesnel White and 7-3 to Quesnel Blue.

Offensively, Riley Brennan, Nick Bernier and Megan Hickey led the Diggers with four goals each. Other team members are Casi Eastman, Jayden Malgunas, Jane Pomeroy, Jacklyn LeBrun, Emily Carter, Jocelyn Forrest, Brooke Harders, Elissa Henderson, Kyrsten Franz, Brooke Bircher, Nicole Antonenko, Murdine Leboe, Jesika Kula and Paige Keddie.
